

K-Love is a valuable part of our family life. It is uplifting and encouraging in a time when there is altogether too many negative things in our world. K-Love serves as a conduit for news and for processing information. It is important in my community that you allow K-Love to stay on the air!